Tttttttttt Numb. 6011

The Daily Courant.

Wednesday, February 8. 1721.

London, February 8.

Yesterday arrived a Mail from Holland.

Konigsberg, February 1.

WE are informed, that the Foreign " Powers have given Orders in " their Harbours, to oblige Ships " coming from this Place and Dantzick to perform Quarantain, without permitting " Persons or Goods on board the said Ships to be " put on Shore before the said Quarantain be performed: This Noise having no Foundation, for " through the Blessing of God, there appears no " Manner of Sign of Contagion, either in the Kingdom of Prussia, or in the neighbouring Provinces of Lithuania or Courland; this Scourge, " which was felt in some Places of Lesser Poland, " which is far distant from Prussia, and with which " we have no Trade, and which has ceased, according to certain Advices and Certificates for " some Time past, without mentioning, that by " the King of Prussia our Master's Orders, all imaginable Care has been taken to prevent the " Dangers which might have been feared from " French Ships; his Majesty has ordered his Ministers at the Courts of Great Britain and the " Hague, to notify the Matters of Fact above-" mentioned to all those concerned, that the Ships " which come from our Harbours to theirs, may no " ways be hinder'd, nor oblig'd to perform Quarantain; provided however, they are furnished " with Passports and Certificates, whereby it may " appear, that they do not come from any Place suspected of Contagion.

Naples, Jan. 21. A great Number of Tartans are arrived here within these few Days from Sicily, laden with Corn for this Country, and were immediately ordered to the Place appointed for Quarantain. Colonel Tavoni is likewise arrived from Sicily, together with some Soldiers; the latter are all ordered to perform Quarantain in the Castle del'Ovo, but the Colonel and his Domesticks have a House assigned them for that purpose by the Magistrates of Health on the River of Posillippo. On the 17th Instant was celebrated the Feast of St. Anthony in the Church dedicated to that Saint, where his Eminency the Cardinal our Viceroy went in publick after Dinner, preceded by a Battalion of German Soldiers, and some Companies of Cuirassiers, with the Company of Halberdier Guards, and a great Train of the principal Nobility in their Coaches. On the 16th Instant the Carnaval was opened, on which Occasion a Machine being dress'd up with Fruits and Flowers, as usual, was carried in the accustomed Manner through the principal Streets to the Palace Door, and was there given to be pillaged by the Crowd.

Montpellier, Jan. 27. The States of Languedoc are expected to assemble upon the 30th Instant; but in all likelihood it will not be very numerous, by reason some of the Bishops continue at Paris, and others in their Dioceses, through Fear of the Plague, which is very much suspected will communicate it self to this Place, it being already at Toulon, a City in Provence, at the Distance only of 12 Leagues from hence: The Physicians who are come hither from Marseilles, have received Orders from Court to repair to Aix. On the 25th Instant, the Turkish Ambassadour and his Retinue set out from Maguelone, the Place where he performed Quarantain, in order to go to Paris: Great Honours have been paid to that Minister since his Landing, and 'tis generally reported, that he is a Person of extraordinary Capacity, and greater Learning than is usually found among People of his Nation.

Vienna, Jan. 28. It is intimated, that this Court is not well pleased with the Reports concerning the Arrival of Mr. Law in this City to communicate a new Project for the establishing a Company. People here seem very well pleased with the Success of their Commerce in the East-Indies; and in order to augment it, it is said the Emperour is resolved to furnish a considerable Sum to that purpose. Those Persons who lately withdrew their Money from our Bank, are now willing to replace it there, but it seems they have been refused.

Hague, Feb. 11. 'People here are not well pleased at the Report concerning General Count de Tilly, who is a Catholick, and said to have favoured the Roman Catholicks in his Government of Maestricht so far, as to have caused his Garrison to be drawn out, and accompany the Host in Procession about the Streets of that City; but by some fresh Letters from thence, it is said, that the entire Garrison was not under Arms on Occasion of that Solemnity: The Countess of Tilly assisting in that Procession, it was meant only to compliment that Lady, that the Grand Guard presented their Arms to salute her, and afterwards a Detachment accompanied her by way of Escorte, during the Ceremony: However it be, at present the Story is so related.

'The last Advices from Manheim say, that in a third Audience M. de Rech had of the Elector Palatine, he desired a favourable Answer concerning the Points of his Negociation, and that he would give his Orders for a speedy and effectual Redress of Grievances, to the Satisfaction of the Protestant Members of the Diet: To which, it is said, the Elector contented himself with giving an Answer in general Terms: The good Effect of that Answer may be easily guess'd at. Those Advices add, that the Elector's Ministers shew a proper Affability upon all Occasions to M. de Rech, but at the same time, they don't scruple to inform him, that his Person in the Palatinate is disagreeable to the Elector; though as yet Prince has not yet thought proper to tell him so; and that it would be best for him to retire. It is likewise reported, that the Elector of Mayence is making a Beginning to redress Grievances in his Territories; 'tis hoped such an Example may inspire the Palatine Court with a like Resolution to do Justice.

'The Report is not true, that the Provinces of Zealand, Cleves, and the City of Cologn, refuse to admit Ships or Passengers from Holland, without Bills of Health.

Paris, Feb. 12. Great Preparations are continued to be made here for the Reception of the Turkish Ambassadour, and the King's Houshold Troops will be new-cloathed on this Occasion. It is reckoned that Ambassadour will not arrive here before the 15th of next Month. M. de St. Contest, one of the French Plenipotentiaries for the Congress at Cambray, will set out To-morrow for that Place, whither M. de Mauville, his Colleague, is to follow him the 17th Instant. The King is entirely recovered of his late Indisposition. About 80 Doctors have renewed their Appeal from the Pope's Constitution to a General Council. The Court has sent a Lettre de Cachet to Don Thierry, Prior of the Abbey of Vienne in Champaigne, ordering him to retire out of the Kingdom; and the Monks of that Convent, which is of the Benedictine Order, have dispersed into other Convents of their Order, for having renewed their Appeal contrary to the Prohibition made by the Court.

General Post-Office, London, Feb. 6, 1720-21.

Whereas the Bristol and Gloucester Mails coming to this Office were this Morning robbed between 3 and 4 a Clock, on the Road near Slow, by one Highwayman, who took several Letters out of the said Mails, and so rode off towards London: These are therefore to give Notice, that whoever apprehends the said Person concerned in this Robbery, so as to have him convicted of the same, shall receive a Reward of One Hundred Pounds, to be paid by the Receiver General of the Post-Office in London, over and above the Reward directed by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen. N. B. The Person who robbed the Mails was a middle-sized Man, pretty thin, and rode upon a Sorrel Horse.

South-Sea-House, Feb. 7, 1720.

The Court of Directors of the South-Sea Company give Notice, That a General Court of the said Company will be held at Merchant-Taylors-Hall in Threadneedle-street, London, on Thursday the 9th Instant, at 11 in the Forenoon, upon special Affairs.

From the SUN FIRE OFFICE.

The Office having adjusted, and paid all Claims and Demands due at Christmas last past, Attendance will be given at the Virginia Coffee-house in St. Michael's Alley, Cornhill, on Thursday the 16th, Friday the 17th, and Monday the 20th of this Instant February, from the Hours of 10 to 2, to pay to the Proprietors of the said Office the Dividend to Christmas last; and after those Days the said Dividend will be paid at the Sun Fire-Office in Threadneedle-street every Wednesday in the Forenoon.

Whereas on Friday last, Capt. Thomas Hedges of Mile-End, went from the Jamaica Coffee-house in Cornhill about 8 in the Evening, in order to go home, and the said Capt. Hedges having about him a Gold-Watch, with a considerable Sum of Money which he had received that Afternoon at the Bank, and not having been at Home, nor since heard of, tho' all possible Diligence hath been used, and there being reason to fear his Life, on account of his charge of Money. If any Person, passing betwixt Mile-End and Cornhill the said Evening, and saw the said Gentleman, will please to leave word at the Bar of the Jamaica Coffee-house, it will be acknowledged as a signal favour: And if any Person can make any discovery of the said Gentleman, shall receive a handsome Reward.

AT the King's Theatre in the Hay-Market, this present Wednesday, being the 8th of February, will be perform'd a new Opera, call'd, ARSACES, or, Amore e Maesta.
